GOMPERS FOUND GUILTY CONTEMPT AT WASHINGTON

LABOR LEADER IS SENTENCED TO SERVE ONE YEAR TERM IN PRISON

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and John Morrison, American Federation of Labor officials, were found guilty in the labor contempt cases, by Justice Wright of the supreme court today. The decision is most bitter in the denunciation of the acts of the defendants who are declared to have committed the acts that resulted in the contempt proceedings, with a knowledge of the ultimate result.

Gompers was sentenced to spend a year in prison and Morrison received a six-months' sentence. Both gave notice of appeal and were released on $500 bail.

Gompers issued a statement bristling with animosity to Justice Wright, who sentenced the labor leader to a year in jail. Gompers charges that Wright wrote the decision in his case and also the cases of Mitchell and Morrison over a month ago and upheld them until after the Chicago convention.
